PROJECT

THE MIND is a striking new construction project in Berlin Mitte, combining clean architecture with a concept for urban living and a sound investment. The 43 condominiums range from compact 1- to 2-room apartments to spacious units and penthouses. STUDIO MARS imbues the building with a contemporary style and a focus on design, everyday usability, and long-term value. An elevator, partially barrier-free floor plans, smart parcel lockers, and optional furnishing packages complete the offering.

THE MIND is also designed as a holistic investment: From the initial purchase decision and a curated interior design concept to structured initial leasing, much of the process can be handled by a single source. The condominiums are suitable for furnished rentals, as a pied-à-terre, or as a primary residence. Living spaces ranging from approximately 24 m² to approximately 209 m², the possibility of combining units, and the anticipated completion in Q4 2027 offer flexibility and prospects in Berlin's sought-after market environment.

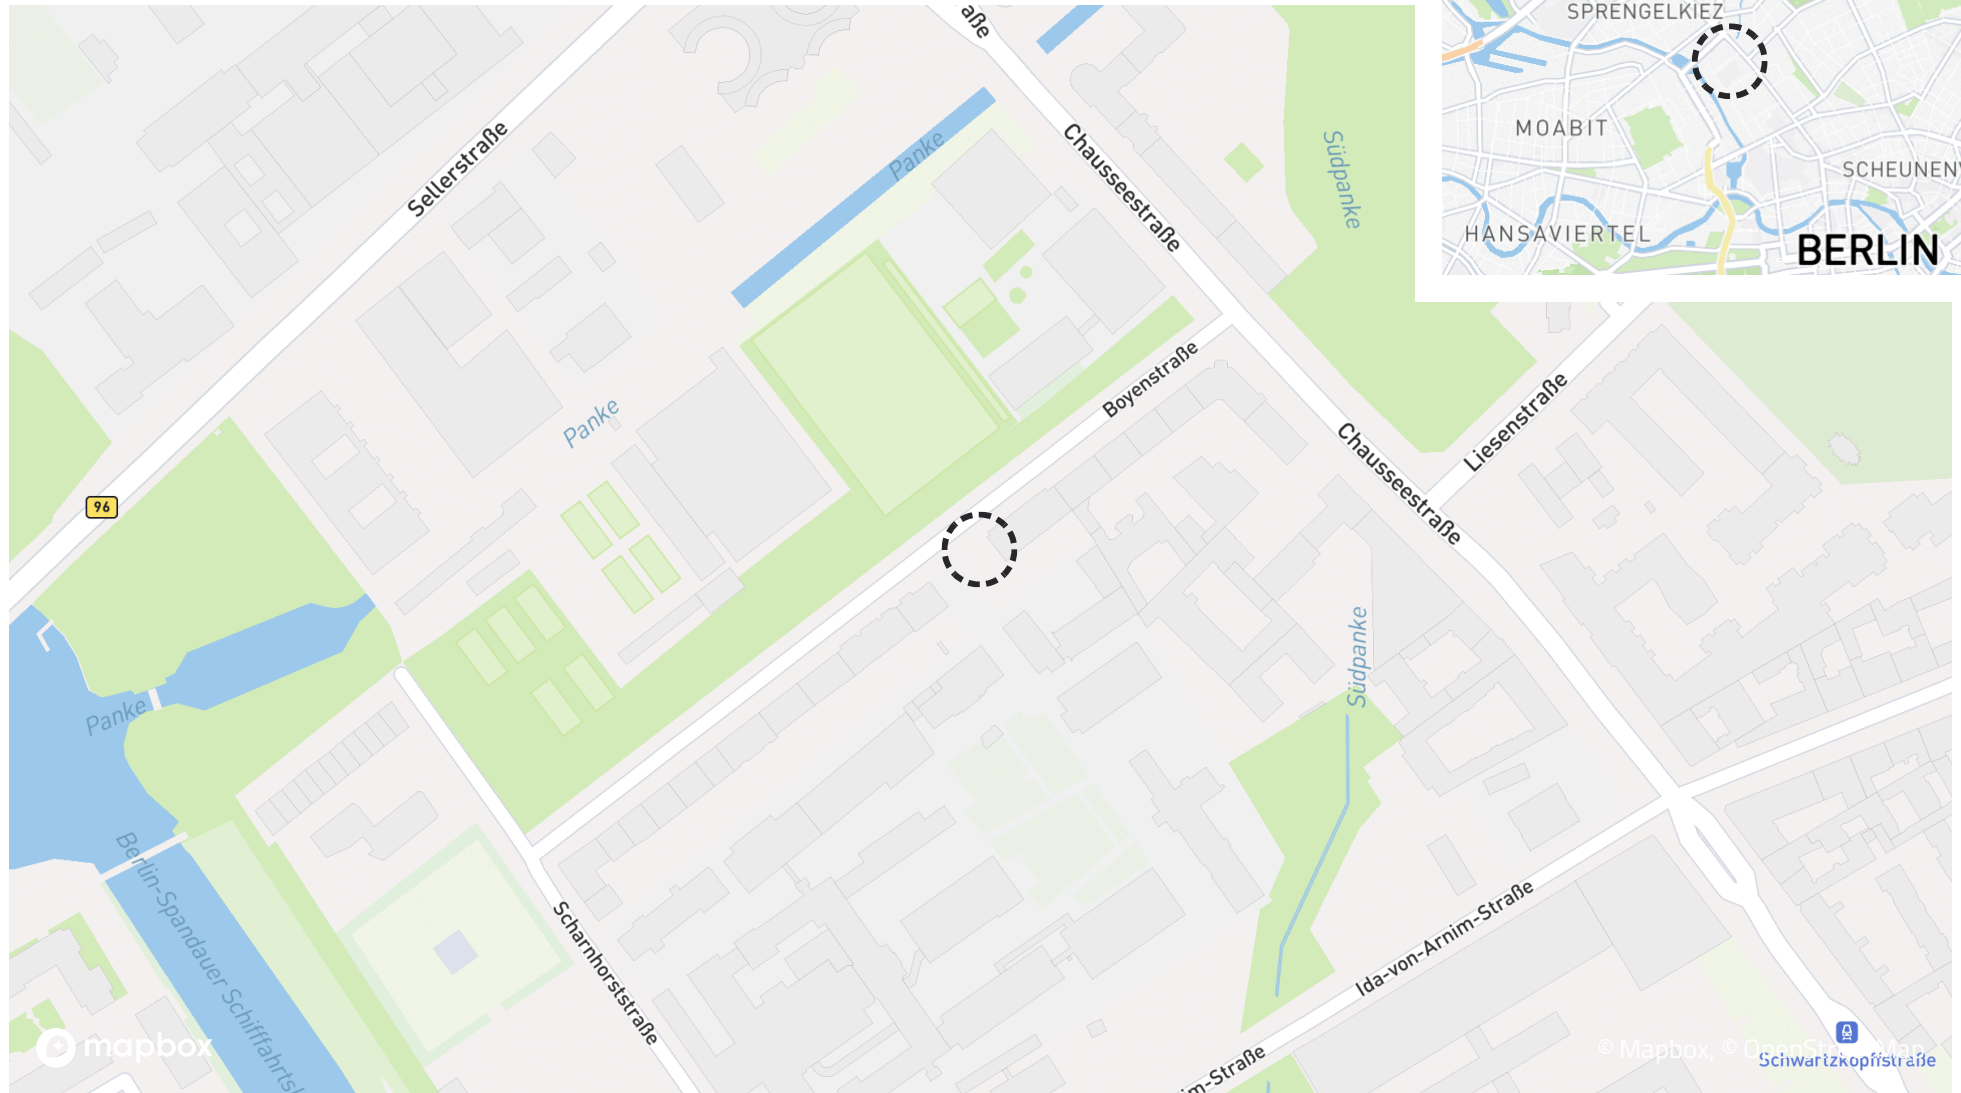

LOCATION

THE MIND is located in northern Berlin Mitte, on a quiet side street between the Spree River, the Nordhafen harbor, and the main train station. The location combines central transport links with a comfortable distance. The surrounding area is characterized by Charité hospital, the Bundeswehr hospital, federal ministries, and businesses. The high density of jobs boosts demand for high-quality living space, especially for compact, furnished units for temporary professionals and executives – a plus for condominiums.

The main train station, S-Bahn, U-Bahn, and tram lines are easily accessible, further enhancing the area's appeal to an international clientele of buyers and tenants. Berlin Mitte is one of the capital's most stable submarkets; low vacancy rates and ongoing development underscore the location's potential.
